

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank

PREAMBLE

This Settlement Agreement and Release (“Agreement”) is entered into by and among Plaintiffs Edward C. Hartnett and Julie A. Hartnett (“Named Plaintiffs”) and all those on whose behalf they are prosecuting this action (each of them a “Plaintiff” and all of them “Plaintiffs”), on the one hand, and defendant Washington Federal Bank (“Defendant” or “WaFd”), on the other hand, as of the date executed below. All references in this Agreement to a “Party” or the “Parties” shall refer to a party or the parties to this Agreement.

RECITALS

- A. On July 1, 2021, Plaintiffs initiated this action by filing a Class Action Complaint with the caption of Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank, Case No. 2:21-cv-00888-RSM-MLP, in the Western District of Washington, asserting causes of action for Breach of Contract (including Breach of the Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing) (the “Complaint”).
- B. Defendant moved to dismiss the Complaint on October 1, 2021. On December 7, 2021, the assigned Magistrate Judge issued a Report & Recommendation (“R&R”), recommending denial of Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss. On December 21, 2021, Defendant filed Objections to the R&R. On January 18, 2022, Plaintiffs filed a Response to Defendant’s Objections. The District Judge has not ruled on Defendant’s Objections.
- C. On February 7, 2022, the Parties jointly sought a stay of the litigation in order to discuss settlement. The Court granted the stay on February 16, 2022, and extended the stay on April 5, 2022. The litigation remains stayed at this time.
- D. The Parties thereafter engaged in informal discovery. During that process, Defendant provided Plaintiffs with data and information that allowed Plaintiffs to estimate class-wide damages.
- E. Defendant has entered into this Agreement to resolve any and all controversies and disputes arising out of or relating to the allegations made in the Complaint, and to avoid the burden, risk, uncertainty, expense, and disruption to its business operations associated with further litigation. Defendant does not in any way acknowledge, admit to, or concede any of the allegations made in the Complaint, and expressly disclaims and denies any fault or liability, or any charges of wrongdoing that have been or could have been asserted in the Complaint. Defendant nevertheless believes that this settlement is in its best interest and in the best interests of all of the Settlement Class Members (as that term is defined herein). Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be used or construed as an admission of liability or wrongdoing, and this Agreement shall not be offered or received in evidence in any action or proceeding in any court or other forum as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing of any nature or for any other purpose other than to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

- F. Named Plaintiffs have entered into this Agreement to liquidate and recover on the claims asserted in the Complaint, and to avoid the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation. Named Plaintiffs do not in any way concede the claims alleged in the Complaint lack merit or are subject to any defenses.

A settlement has been reached with Washington Federal Bank (“Defendant”) in a class action lawsuit about overdraft (“OD”) and nonsufficient funds (“NSF”) fees charged on consumer accounts from November 15, 2015 through August 31, 2021 and business accounts from July 1, 2020 to August 31, 2021.

Who is included? Defendant’s records indicate that you are a “Potential Settlement Class Member” in this Settlement because you were charged an NSF or OD fee. Specifically, Potential Settlement Class Members are: all customers of Defendant who were charged an NSF or OD fee on their accounts for a single payment submitted to Defendant for collection during the Class Period—from November 15, 2015 through August 31, 2021 for consumers and July 1, 2020 to August 31, 2021 for businesses—which request for collection initially was rejected for insufficient funds, but subsequently was re-presented to Defendant for collection on one or more additional occasions resulting in additional NSF and/or OD Fees, provided the customer either (1) ceased being a customer of Defendant on or before August 31, 2021, or (2) affirmatively opted out of contractual arbitration with Defendant on or before January 11, 2022.

What does the Settlement provide? Defendant will create a $495,000 Settlement Fund. After deducting attorneys’ fees and costs and service awards to the Named Plaintiffs, the balance of the Settlement Fund will be divided proportionately among all Class Members. In addition, Defendant has implemented changes to its disclosures and will pay the costs of notice and administration separately.

What are my options? If you do nothing and the Settlement is approved and becomes final, you will automatically receive a check and your rights will be affected. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement or receive an account credit or check, you must exclude yourself from it by [Date]. Unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to sue or continue to sue Defendant for any claim made in this lawsuit or released by the Settlement Agreement. If you stay in the Settlement (do not exclude yourself), you may object to it by [Date].

The Court’s Fairness Hearing. The United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, located at the United States Courthouse, 700 Stewart St., Suite 13206, Seattle, WA 98101, will hold a hearing in this case (Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank) on [redacted] at [redacted]. At this hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve: (1) the Settlement; (2) Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees (up to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Fund) and costs; and (3) a $5,000 service award to the Named Plaintiffs. You or your lawyer may appear at the hearing at your own expense, but you don’t have to.

 Subject: Notice of Refund – Washington Federal Bank

Washington Federal Bank’s (the “Bank”) records indicate that you were charged a nonsufficient funds fee between November 15, 2015 and August 31, 2021. You do not have to do anything now to receive a payment. However, your rights are affected by this class action settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR OPTIONS AND THE LEGAL EFFECT OF EACH OPTION
DO NOTHING	If you have been assessed the type NSF fee and/or Overdraft fee that is being challenged in this case, then you will receive a payment from the Settlement Fund so long as you do not exclude yourself (described in the next box).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT; RECEIVE NO PAYMENT BUT RELEASE NO CLAIMS	You can choose to exclude yourself from the settlement or “opt out.” This means you choose not to participate in the settlement. You will keep your individual claims against the Bank, but you will not receive a payment. If you want to recover against the Bank, then you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	You can file an objection to the Settlement explaining why you believe the Court should reject the settlement. If your objection is overruled by the Court, you will receive a payment and you will not be able to sue the Bank for the claims asserted in this litigation. If the Court agrees with your objection, then the settlement may not be approved.

A settlement has been reached with the Bank in a class action lawsuit about nonsufficient funds (“NSF”) fees and Overdraft (“OD”) fees charged on personal accounts from November 15, 2015 through August 31, 2021 and business accounts between July 1, 2020 and August 31, 2021.

Who is included? Defendant’s records indicate that you are a “Potential Settlement Class Member” in this Settlement because a customer of the Bank who was charged an NSF or OD fee on your account for a payment submitted to the Bank for collection during the Class Period, which request for collection initially was rejected for insufficient funds, but subsequently was represented to the Bank for collection on one or more additional occasions resulting in additional NSF and/or OD Fees, and you either (1) ceased being a customer of the Bank on or before August 31, 2021, or (2) affirmatively opted out of contractual arbitration with the Bank on or before January 11, 2022.

What does the Settlement provide? The Bank will create a $495,000.00 Settlement Fund. The balance of the Settlement Fund will be divided proportionately among all Class Members after deducting attorneys' fees and costs and a service award to the Named Plaintiffs. In addition, the Bank has implemented changes to disclosures that clarify its NSF and OD fee practices. The Bank will pay the costs of notice and administration of this class-action settlement separately.

What are my options? If you do nothing and the Settlement is approved and becomes final, you will automatically receive a payment and your rights will be affected. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement or receive an account credit or check, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by [Date]. Unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to bring claims against the Bank for any claim made in this lawsuit or released by the Settlement Agreement. If you stay in the Settlement (do not exclude yourself), you may object to it by [Date].

The Court's Fairness Hearing. The United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, located at the United States Courthouse, 700 Stewart St., Suite 13206, Seattle, WA 98101, will hold a hearing in this case (Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank on [redacted] at [redacted]). At this hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve: (1) the Settlement; (2) Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees (up to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Fund) and costs; and (3) a $5,000 service award to each of the Named Plaintiffs. You or your lawyer may appear at the hearing at your own expense, but you don't have to.

The Western District of Washington has authorized this Notice; it is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

SUMMARY OF YOUR OPTIONS AND THE LEGAL EFFECT OF EACH OPTION
DO NOTHING	If you have been assessed the type of NSF fee and/or OD Fee that is being challenged in this case, then you will receive a payment from the Settlement Fund so long as you do not exclude yourself (described in the next box).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT; RECEIVE NO PAYMENT BUT RELEASE NO CLAIMS	You can choose to exclude yourself from the settlement or “opt out.” This means you choose not to participate in the settlement. You will keep your individual claims against Defendant, but you will not receive a payment. If you want to recover against Defendant, then you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	You can file an objection with the Settlement Administrator explaining why you believe the Court should reject the settlement. If your objection is overruled by the Court, you will receive a payment and you will not be able to sue Defendant for the claims asserted in this litigation. If the Court agrees with your objection, then the settlement may not be approved.

These rights and options – and the deadlines to exercise them – along with the material terms of the settlement are explained in this Notice.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit that is being settled is entitled Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank. The case is a “class action.” That means that the “Named Plaintiffs,” Edward C. Hartnett and Julie A. Hartnett, are individuals who are acting on behalf of a group that includes all customers of Defendant who were charged an NSF or OD fee on their accounts for a payment submitted to Defendant for collection during the Class Period—for personal accounts, from November 15, 2015 through August 31, 2021 and for business accounts, from July 1, 2020 through August 31, 2021—which request for collection initially was rejected for insufficient funds, but subsequently was re-presented to Defendant for collection on one or more additional occasions resulting in additional NSF and/or OD Fees, provided the customer either (1) ceased being a customer of Defendant on or before August 31, 2021, or (2) affirmatively opted out of contractual arbitration with Defendant before January 11, 2022. The persons in this group are collectively called the “Class Members.”

The Named Plaintiffs claim they were improperly charged NSF and/or OD fees. Defendant does not deny that it assessed the Named Plaintiffs NSF and/or OD fees, but denies that its practices give rise to claims for damages by the Named Plaintiffs or any Class Member. Defendant specifically maintains that it properly and lawfully assessed all fees in accordance with the terms of its agreements, disclosure, and applicable law.

2. Why did the parties settle?

In any lawsuit, there are risks and potential benefits that come with a trial versus settling at an earlier stage. It is the Named Plaintiffs’ lawyers’ job to identify when a proposed settlement offer is good enough that it justifies recommending settling the case instead of continuing to trial. In a class action, these lawyers, known as Class Counsel, make this recommendation to the Named Plaintiffs. The Named Plaintiffs have the duty to act in the best interests of the class as a whole and, in this case, it is their belief, as well as Class Counsel’s opinion, that this settlement is in the best interest of all Class Members for at least the following reasons:

There is legal uncertainty about whether the Court (or eventually a trial court judge or a jury) will find that Defendant breached its agreements with customers or otherwise acted improperly by assessing the NSF and/or OD fees that are the subject of this case. There also is uncertainty about whether the Named Plaintiffs’ claims are subject to other defenses that might result in no recovery or less recovery to Class Members. Even if the Named Plaintiffs were to win at trial, there is no assurance that the Class Members would be awarded more than the current settlement amount, and it may take years of litigation before any payments would be made. By settling, the Class Members will avoid these and other risks and the delays associated with continued litigation.

Although Defendant disputes Plaintiffs’ claims, it has agreed to settle to avoid the costs, distractions and risks of further litigation. Thus, even though Defendant denies that it did anything improper, it believes settlement is in its best interest and in the best interests of all of its customers.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

3. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

If you received a notice in the mail or via email, then Defendant's records indicate that you are a Class Member who is entitled to receive a payment or credit to your account.

YOUR OPTIONS

4. What options do I have with respect to the Settlement?

You have three options: (1) do nothing and you will receive a payment according to the terms of this settlement; (2) exclude yourself from the settlement ("opt out" of it); or (3) participate in the settlement but object to it. Each of these options is described in a separate section below.

5. What are the critical deadlines?

If you do nothing, you will receive settlement funds by credit to your account if you are still a customer of Defendant when the settlement is paid or via check mailed to your residence of record if you are not a customer of Defendant when the settlement is paid at the close of the claims period.

The deadline for sending a letter to exclude yourself from or opt out of the settlement is [REDACTED].

The deadline to file an objection with the Court is also [REDACTED].

6. How do I decide which option to choose?

If you do not like the settlement and you believe that you could receive more money by pursuing your claims on your own (with or without an attorney that you could hire) and you are comfortable with the risk that you might lose your case or get less than you would in this settlement, then you may want to consider opting out.

If you believe the settlement is unreasonable, unfair, or inadequate and the Court should reject the settlement, you can object to the settlement terms. The Court will decide if your objection is valid. If the Court agrees, then the settlement will not be approved and no payments will be made to you or any other Class Member. If your objection (and any other objection) is overruled, and the settlement is approved, then you will still get a payment.

7. What has to happen for the Settlement to be approved?

The Court has to decide that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate before it will approve it. The Court already has decided to provide preliminary approval of the settlement, which authorized this Notice. The Court will make a final decision regarding the settlement at a "Fairness Hearing" or "Final Approval Hearing," which is currently scheduled for [REDACTED].

THE SETTLEMENT PAYMENT

8. How much is the Settlement?

Defendant has agreed to create a Settlement Fund of $495,000.00. As discussed separately below, attorneys' fees, litigation costs and a service award to the Named Plaintiffs, will be paid out of this amount. The balance of the Settlement Fund will be divided among all Class Members proportionally. Additionally, as a result of this lawsuit, Defendant has implemented changes to its disclosures that clarify Defendant's NSF and OD fee practices. The Defendant will pay the costs of notice and administration of the class action settlement separately.

9. How much of the settlement fund will be used to pay for attorney fees and costs?

Class Counsel will request that the Court award up to one-third (33-1/3%) of the value of the settlement as attorneys' fees plus reimbursement litigation costs incurred in prosecuting the case. The Court will decide the amount of the attorneys' fees based on a number of factors, including the risk associated with bringing the case, the amount of time spent on the case, the amount of costs incurred to prosecute the case, the quality of the work, and the outcome of the case.

10. How much of the settlement fund will be used to pay the Named Plaintiffs a Service Award?

Class Counsel on behalf of the Named Plaintiffs will request that the Court award them up to $5,000 for their role in securing this settlement on behalf of the class. The Court will decide if a Service Award is appropriate and if so, the amount of the award.

11. How much will my payment be?

The balance of the Settlement Fund will be divided among all Class Members proportionally. Class Members will receive a check for the amount they are entitled to receive from the Settlement Administrator.

12. Do I have to do anything if I want to participate in the Settlement?

No. Any amount you are entitled to under the terms of the settlement will be distributed to you unless you choose to exclude yourself from the settlement, or "opt out." Excluding yourself from the settlement means you choose not to participate in the settlement. You will keep your individual claims against Defendant, but you will not receive a payment. In that case, if you choose to seek recovery against Defendant, then you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.

13. When will I receive my payment?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing (explained below in Questions 22-24) on to consider whether the settlement should be approved. If there are no objections and the Court approves the settlement, then the Settlement Administrator should begin paying claims within approximately forty days of the Court's approval. However, if someone objects to the settlement, and the objection is sustained, then there is no settlement. Even if all objections are overruled and the Court approves the settlement, an objector could appeal, and it might take months or even years to have the appeal resolved, which would delay any payment.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

14. How do I exclude myself from the settlement?

If you do not want to receive a payment, or if you want to keep any right you may have to sue Defendant for the claims alleged in this lawsuit, then you must exclude yourself, or “opt out.”

To opt out, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator that you want to be excluded. Your letter can simply say “I hereby elect to be excluded from the settlement in the Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank class action. Be sure to include your name, the last four digits of your account number (current or former) or Social Security Number, address, telephone number, and email address. Your exclusion or opt out request must be postmarked by [REDACTED], and sent to:

Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank
[ADDRESS]

15. What happens if I opt out of the settlement?

If you opt out of the settlement, you will preserve and not give up any of your rights to bring claims against Defendant for the claims alleged in this case. However, you will not be entitled to receive a payment from this settlement.

16. If I exclude myself, can I obtain a payment?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not be entitled to a payment.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I notify the Court that I do not like the settlement?

You can object to the settlement or any part of it that you do not like IF you do not exclude yourself, or opt out, from the settlement. (Class Members who exclude themselves from the settlement have no right to object to how other Class Members are treated.) To object, you must send a written document to the Settlement Administrator, the Court, Class Counsel, and Defendant’s counsel, at the addresses below. Your objection must include the following:

- A heading referring to the Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank Class Action;
- Your name, address, telephone number, the last four digits of your account number (current or former) or Social Security Number, and the contact information for any attorney you have retained in connection with this case;
- A statement of the factual and legal basis for each objection and any exhibits you wish the Court to consider in connection with the objection;
- A statement as to whether you intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person or through an attorney, and, if through an attorney, identifying the attorney by name, address, and telephone number; and
- Your signature.

Class Counsel and/or Defendant’s Counsel will file any objections and responsive pleadings at least seven days before the Final Approval Hearing Date. Be advised that if you object to the settlement and retain an attorney for purposes of objecting, you are solely responsible for paying that attorneys’ fees and costs. If you fail to comply with the provisions herein, you will waive and forfeit any and all rights to appear and/or object separately, and will be bound by the terms of this Agreement and the orders and judgments of the Court.

All objections must be post-marked no later than [REDACTED], and must be mailed to the above-identified recipients as follows:

CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR:

Hartnett v. Washington Federal Bank Settlement Administrator

[ADDRESS]

18. What is the difference between objecting and requesting exclusion from the settlement?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not believe the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate for the class, and asking the Court to reject it. You can object only if you do not opt out of the settlement. If you object to the settlement and do not opt out, then you are entitled to a payment if the settlement is approved, but you will release claims you might have against Defendant. Excluding yourself or opting out is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the settlement, and do not want to receive a payment or release claims you might have against Defendant for the claims alleged in this lawsuit.

19. What happens if I object to the settlement?

If the Court sustains your objection, or the objection of any other Class Member, then there is no settlement. If you object, but the Court overrules your objection and any other objection(s), then you will be part of the settlement.

THE COURT’S FAIRNESS HEARING

20. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval or Fairness Hearing at [date/time] at [REDACTED]. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court may also decide how much to award Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and expenses and how much the Named Plaintiffs should get as a “Service Award” for acting as the class representatives.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may attend if you desire to do so. If you have submitted an objection, then you may want to attend.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

If you have objected, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include with your objection, described in Question 18, above, the statement, "I hereby give notice that I intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing."

IF YOU DO NOTHING

23. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing at all, and if the settlement is approved, then you may receive a payment that represents your share of the Settlement Fund. You will be considered a part of the class, and you will give up claims against Defendant for the conduct identified in the settlement. You will not give up any other claims you might have against Defendant that are not released in this settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

24. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court ordered that the lawyers and their law firms referred to in this notice as "Class Counsel" will represent you and the other Class Members.

25. Do I have to pay the lawyer for accomplishing this result?

No. Class Counsel will be paid directly from the Settlement Fund.

26. Who determines what the attorneys' fees will be?

The Court will be asked to approve the amount of attorneys' fees at the Fairness Hearing. Class Counsel will file an application for fees and costs and will specify the amount being sought as discussed above. You may review a physical copy of the fee application at the website established by the Settlement Administrator, www.xxxxxxx.com.

For additional information about the settlement and/or to obtain copies of the settlement agreement, the pleadings in this case or to change your address for purposes of receiving a payment, you should contact the Settlement Administrator as follows:
